Synod 2021-22 Responses from Immaculate Conception Church, Kelowna, BC – Nelson Diocese Cont'd

9. DISCERNING AND DECIDING

9d Do our decision-making methods help us to listen to the whole People of God?

Hopefully all ministry groups in the parish attempt to discern the movement of the Holy Spirit, considering the different personalities and needs of others before making decisions about programs and ministry procedures.

There is uncertainty as to how the clergy, Bishops, and Pope make decisions - perhaps listening to the voices of the people, perhaps not. One lay person attempted to bring forward ideas to church leadership only to have him walk away. Specifically, this was regarding how to welcome into our parish our baptized Aboriginal brothers and sisters who have felt rejected from parishioners in the past. A lack of knowledge and limited exposure to the lived experience of others thwarts our ability to listen. It appears that not all community members (youth, different origins/race, new to the community) are represented in decision- making. And finally, inter-parish decision-making is limited as is parish to diocesan decision making. This has led to unprecedented division and poor formation in our diocese (e.g., catechism). Many voices have no knowledge of whom to approach or how to make their needs known.

Our St. Vincent de Paul Society at ICC Parish does not work in a vacuum. We rely heavily on our wonderful community to assist us in providing for the poor, the sick and the marginalized in our society. Here are some organizations with whom we work closely:

- CMHA (Canadian Mental Health Association) - promotes mental health and supports people recovering from mental illness.
- Now Canada Society - providing front line programs and services for women and youth who have experienced addictions, abuse, sexual exploitation and mental health challenges
- Journey Home – Kelowna's initiative to address homelessness with a focus on ensuring that everyone has a place to call "home"
- Mission Thrift Store – partners with SVP to provide clothing (and other essential items) to people in need

How can you help?
Pray and support the work of our St. Vincent de Paul Society, and the above organizations.
Volunteer or shop at Mission Thrift Store.
Thank you for all you do. We are so grateful for our ICC Parish Community.
