Help needed!

More volunteers are needed in our parish for two very important ministries!

We are looking for Ushers for 5:00 pm Sunday nights. Every other week we have a coordinator, but we need one for the opposite weeks. Perhaps you and your family could volunteer to take up the collection!

Secondly, if reading is your gift, please consider becoming a Proclaimer of the Word for Sunday night Mass! Some training is available if this is something you think you would be good at. If the 5:00 pm Mass time is YOUR usual time, please consider contacting Leanne for more details on what is required for these roles!

CWL

There are still openings for the new CWL executives. Without you, we cannot continue to grow. Positions need to be filled, to continue to be an important part of Catholic women in the Church. There is a place for you. You are essential to bring us to a full team.

The Catholic Women's League of Canada's national convention is being held in Kelowna from Sunday, August 14th to Wednesday, August 17th.

Guest speakers include Elizabeth Tomlin, a Catholic author and general counsel for the Archdiocese for the Military Services, USA and Barbara Dowding, former national CWL president, Chancellor of the Archdiocese of Vancouver, and co-author of the League's five-year strategic plan.

You will have the opportunity to participate in the resolutions dialogue, get a strategic planning progress report and celebrate in true sisterhood fashion.

The agenda and information on how to register, and choices for pre and post-convention activities can be found on the <http://cwl.ca> website.

Or please call Carolyn - 250-300-5108 for information.

We look forward to seeing you.

Synod 2021-22 Responses from Immaculate Conception Church, Kelowna, BC – Nelson Diocese

1. COMPANIONS ON THE JOURNEY

1 b Who are our companions on the journey, including those outside the boundaries of the Church?

We, the baptized, are called to proclaim Christ to all peoples. Some companions we choose to journey with (friends, family, faith based small groups at church, those with whom we have grown in faith with or journeyed with in ministry) and other companions are chosen for us (coworkers, neighbours, whether churched or not, people we see "on the fringe" e.g. homeless, addicted, immigrants). Some we choose to accompany in faith are those with whom a friendship has been established as we cannot hope to have any influence over anyone who does not know us and trust us.

1 c How are we called to grow as companions?

We need to remain in Jesus - the One True Vine - and be willing to be pruned to produce more fruit. We need to be authentic, loving, and nonjudgmental, meeting people where they are at while seeking understanding and providing assistance as needed. We need to see the saints as role models and study how they lived out their Christian faith in the world. In order to share our faith, we need to know our Catechism and learn how to defend it in a time where there is a lack of tolerance of the Christian World View. We need to learn how to accompany people better, be more accountable to each other, and humbly speak the truth in love.

News from Bishop's office:

With gratitude and appreciation for his service, the Diocese of Nelson bids farewell to Fr. Nino Tuyo after five years of dedicated ministry in the Fruitvale/Rossland parishes. Fr. Nino returns to his home Diocese of Legazpi at the end of June. Thank you Fr. Nino and may God continue to bless you and your ministry in the Church! Safe travels home!

The Diocese of Nelson welcomes Fr. Xaviour Mulakkampilli Chakku, CMI, who comes to us from the Congregation of Carmelites of Mary Immaculate, Preshitha Coimbatore Province, India. Fr. Xaviour recently served in Kenya since 2010. We are very grateful for his service for the next five years. For the next two weeks until his assignment is given, Fr. Xaviour will be at ICC Parish in Kelowna learning about the diocese under the mentorship of Fr. Sebastian Puthenpura and Fr. Cerlouie Jimenez.

With gratitude and appreciation for his service, the Diocese of Nelson bids farewell to Fr. Ron Dechant who, in his retirement, has served as a replacement priest for several years. Fr. Ron now resides in Mission, BC. May God bless Fr. Ron in his new home!

Bishop Gregory extends to everyone his gratitude for the cooperation and collaboration to manage through the COVID-19 pandemic with all of the changes in public health orders that affected worship, gatherings, education, etc. May the pandemic remain a distant memory ever after.

Bishop Gregory is also thankful for everyone who participated in the Synodal process and is pleased to report that the Diocesan Synthesis will be submitted in the next few days. The synthesis will be available to everyone via parish bulletins and websites in due time.

After a busy spring of travel around the diocese, Bishop Gregory has confirmed many young people and congratulates each and every one of them! May the Holy Spirit be with each of them to renew and strengthen them in their commitment to follow Jesus Christ.

On behalf of Bishop Gregory and the staff of the Pastoral Centre, have a safe and happy summer!
