Synod 2021-22 Responses from Immaculate Conception Church, Kelowna, BC – Nelson Diocese Cont'd

8. AUTHORITY AND PARTICIPATION

8c How are teamwork and co-responsibility put into practice?

At the diocese level and above, there appears to be little to no evidence of teamwork, encouragement or co-responsibility. There seems to be a lack of communication between levels of governance in our Church: between the Diocesan Office and parishes, between parish priests and parishioners.

On a parish level, there could be better dialogue between ministries to appear more cohesive and be more impactful - a liturgy committee comes to mind. Individuals in the parish are not being called out to use their gifts in the parish - if each person was involved in one ministry, the whole parish could be more unified in its mission, simply because everyone would be "known" by someone.

Our different ministries (eg. liturgical ministries such as lectors and musicians; Knights of Columbus and CWL, St. Vincent de Paul) seem to do a good job of working together and sharing the burden. However, it does seem that it is a small percentage of our church who are committed to these and other ministries resulting in burn-out.

Live-In Retreat, Seton House of Prayer Kelowna, BC Nov. 11-13

The whole purpose of the Live-In is to lead those who come to a deeper personal relationship with Jesus Christ. People who make the Live-In seem to always experience "Jesus as someone real". They experience a new peace and deeper faith. Many people say that during their Live-In, they have received a whole new outlook on life, an understanding of God's love for them, and a new desire to pray and read scripture. The program involves a series of instructions and slides on the basis of Christian life. There are a variety of speakers from all walks of life. It is Roman Catholic funded and based. It includes the celebration of Reconciliation and the Eucharist. Shannon Moleski: moleskism@gmail.com or call or text 250-255-3444
